MADRILENE'S GOOD RACE.

For the eleventh day of Harlem racing the card was only fair, but the attendance held up to the average. The weather was comfortable, the sky overcast up to the time of the first race. There were plenty of signs of rain, but none fell. The track was in splendid condition.

The first race had Pat Dunne's Survivor for its favorite, although Rutter was up in the absence of the stable jockey, W. Martin, who is riding at Saratoga. Tulla Fonso, on her good race of Thursday, was much fancied. She carried McNickle, a boy as to whose ability as a rider opinion is divided, some claiming that in time he will become a prominent jockey, the opposition entertaining the idea expressed by "he couldn't ride on the Ferris wheel." Prince McClurg was also in the betting, and Tommy Burns' mount, Bill Anthony, found backing. The winner turned up in Hanlight, backed from 15 to 1 down to 10 to 1. Tulla Fonso got off well, and at once opened a gap. Hanlight was second into the straight and passed Tulla Fonso at the last one hundred yards, winning easily. Survivor, third after the home stretch was reached, beat the fast dying Huffman filly for the place. Volandies was a fair fourth. Survivor ran the best race, being off badly and running on the outside. He swerved at the last furlong pole.

Now came a happening where nobody was to blame but the race track officials. The horses went to the post for the second race and there had been a breakaway when Dunois was called to the judge's stand and Rutter, his jockey, was ordered to dismount. The boys on the other horses also dismounted. Sweeney was sent in search of Tom Ryan, the owner of Dunois, and Ryan was called to the judge's stand. Presently it was announced, "Caywood on Dunois; all bets stand," and the horses were again sent to the post. No change in the betting resulted, only Madrilene's price was advanced from 3 to 1 up to 16 to 5. It seems that Rutter was suspended at St. Louis Thursday. Rutter had been allowed to ride Survivor in the first race because the facts were not known.

Off to a good start, Madrilene led all the way and won pulling up. Dunois, always well up, was second and Muskalonge, last away from the post, third in a drive, with Bishop Reed. Caius ran well to the last quarter.

Sea Lion won the third race, running away from the others at the finish. The start was a bad one, the horses straggling, with the favorite in the rear. Frank Bell had run his race at the several breakaways, but was first to show. Hardy Pardee, heavily backed by Marcus Cartwright—for reasons only known to himself—quickly passed to the front with Frank Bell and the pair raced some distance ahead of Sea Lion to the straight. Soon all the horses except Primavera were closely together, the favorite on the extreme outside. Miss Marks looked to be winning at the last sixteenth, but Sea Lion went by at a high rate of speed. Queen of Song, Frank Bell and Hardy Pardee had a great finish for the show money, the favorite winning.

Moncreith won with but little shaking up at the finish. Moncreith, a "good thing" down town, was full of run at the start and Burns kept him in the first division the first quarter. In fact, all the horses were three abreast except Morte Fosse and Forte. The real race began on the far turn, the four being nicely bunched at the end of the grand stand. Burns was on the outside, and at the final furlong had all others beaten, Moncreith showing a sharp flight of speed in passing.

Tommy Burns, for the fourth consecutive time, rode the winning horse. This time it was Ferroll, who got off second to Hardy, ran her down in the first half and had easy picking the balance of the way. The favorite, Heigh Ho, was never worse than third and when L. Reiff began to bat him the last three hundred yards, Duke & Wishard's horse gained rapidly and ran home a close second. Lizzie Cavalier, a strongly backed tip, got off none too well, ran fast the last part of the race.

McNickle furnished the surprise of the day when in the sixth race he took Locust Blossom out in front at the first turn and led all the way. Uarda was first passing the stand but lost ground, and the best she showed afterwards was third. Nathanson was second the last three-eighths and so finished. Daisy F., badly interfered with up the back stretch, finished third. George Krats ran well the last end of the race.

The Harlem management received notice from Secretary Joseph A. Murphy, of St. Louis, that Rutter stands suspended there for foul riding. The message came and was delivered to Col. Clark as the horses were at the post. Rutter was taken down as quickly as possible. Tom Ryan, who gave him the mount on Dunois and Pat Dunne, owner of Survivor, ridden by Rutter in the first race, were innocent, as the boy arrived from St. Louis Friday morning, and, of course, said nothing of his suspension.

Inquiry by the Turf Congress officials developed the fact that outlaw Jockeys Narvaez and Ellis have not been reinstated by the Jockey Club. "You can give them licenses, so being disposed," was the communication from the eastern body. This taken in connection with the fact of L. Smith being allowed to ride on a Canada track would seem to indicate that the Jockey Club considers itself an independent organization, and neither knows or cares what other people do.

Ed Corrigan said that Hawthorne would open Monday to a certainty and that everything at the track is in first-class shape. The facilities for reaching Hawthorne are better than ever. Of Mr. Brenock's intentions Mr. Corrigan said: "I know nothing."

John Condon said: "I am going to Milwaukee Monday next on a boat ride and when I return shall then go across the lake from here to St. Joe. During the two weeks vacation I shall put in some days at West Baden."

J. W. Schorr will early next week ship east the ten best of his string. Tommy Burns is to go along. It is said that August Belmont will have second call on Burns.

"Wash" Norvell will be at the Harlem race-track Saturday morning from 8:00 until 11:00 o'clock to take entries for the Hawthorne races of Monday.

There will positively be no free list at Hariem today. Badges of all descriptions will be ignored.

MR. CORRIGAN'S STATEMENT.

Edward Corrigan, when asked about the suit brought against him by John Brenock in the Circuit Court for an accounting, said:

"There are always two sides to a story. Mr. Brenock has told his, and now I will tell mine. Mr. Brenock says there was $150,000 spent by the Hawthorne management through myself. There was exactly $71,000 in the expenditure, and this was sanctioned by Mr. Brenock, who paid out nearly one-half of that amount himself, and he knew where every dollar of it went, he being present when the settlement was made with me and this settlement was sanctioned by himself and the directors of the Chicago Racing Association.

"There is a suit now pending against Brenock in behalf of the Chicago Racing Association for $50,000. November 12, 1881, Mr. Brenock gave Time, 26, 51⁴, 1:17⁴, 1:44¹.

Winner—Ch. h, 6, by The Bard—Rosewood. Start good. Won easily. Doggett, in spite of two bad interferences, galloped over his horses. Tinge, supposed to dislike mud, ran a fine race, though badly handicapped by his ride. Her Own was carried along too fast and quit. Burlesque labored throughout, though ridden hard from the start, and evidently wants a fast track.

Scratched—Campania, 93.

Time, 12⁴, 24¹, 37, 1:03.

Winner—B. f, by Atlantic or Dutch Roller—Blossom. Start fair. Won easily. Althea, lucky throughout and well handled, liked the going. Hop Scotch was good in the mud with her light weight and flying start. Tophet was a good horse also but had but a small chance with the ride. He took the longest route and swerved all over the track in the stretch but is evidently a mud lark. Oliver Mc is a fine looker and after running well was eased up the last sixteenth. May be a good one. Improvident, away last, was possibly the best. He closed a big gap. Crown ran well, so did Top Note, who was pulled up the last quarter.

Scratched—Somers, 107; Deceptive, 92.

Winner—Ch. g, by Eon—Amy. Start straggling. Won easily. Gun Metal was easily the best today. He is good in mud and over a distance. Long Acre and Roselle both broke very slowly and were out of the race from the start. Long Acre is good and likes a route.

Time, 12⁴, 24¹, 36¹, 49⁴, 1:02⁴.

Winner—Ch. g, by Rayon d'Or—Fides. Start good. Won easily. Filon d'Or was lucky in getting the best going. He tried to run out on the turn. Federal ran surprisingly well. Exception began slowly and closed fast. Effervescent, anchored by weight, was pulled up at the end. Rusher and Tennith were killed off by running in the worst part of the going, and both were eased at the end. Tennith ran a fine race and is promising.

Winner—B. c, 4, by St. Andrew—Blue Dress. Start good. Won driving. Blue Devil was best and liked the going. He was best ridden. Squire Abingdon is evidently at home in mud and ran well. Field Lark was badly handled and forced into the deep going on the rail. Others are no account.

his note, made payable to Samuel Allerton and signed by John Brenock, James C. Burke and John C. Burke. October 21, 1894, Brenock was given check 5526 for $51,750, payable to his order to meet that note and interest, his stock in the Chicago Racing Association and that of J. C. Burke being turned over to Secretary Kuhl as collateral. That same day Mr. Brenock turned over that note with his signature cut off to the secretary, and with no remarks. Some time in February or March following, and while I was absent in California, Mr. Brenock was given back his stock and that belonging to J. C. Burke by Secretary Kuhl, who knew that I trusted them implicitly. That is the case that Mr. Brenock has against the Chicago Racing Association in a nut shell, and it is owing to the suit pending against him that he now asks for a receiver. It was only when the suit against him was pressed that he applied to the courts and swore that the corporation owed him $25,000, when he was indebted to us to the extent of $50,000 or more."

Time, 12 1/2, 23 1/2, 48 1/2, 1:00 1/2, 1:07 1/2.

Winner—Ch. f, by Hanover—Longlight.
Off at first break to a poor start. The first three were driving hard. Survivor was undoubtedly the best. With an equal break he could not have lost. Rutter had the colt on the outside and was foolish to accept such a break. He ran all around his field and finished with a tremendous rush. Hanlight was nicely ridden. She was away well on her stride and saved all the ground possible during the journey. This seems to be more than an ordinary filly. Tulla Fonso is fast. McNickle got her off running and perhaps pumped her out the first five furlongs. At any rate she stopped badly at the finish. Prince McClurg is a slow beginner. He was off in front, but dropped far back in the first sixteenth and hardly ran his race. Volandies and Cheval d'Or both raced well. The latter prefers a heavy track, but is good now and will do to watch.
Scratched—Cora Havill II, 100; Galathee, 112; Mizzoura, 112; Oscar's Joy, 100; White Pine, 100.

Hanlight, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Survivor, place, 7 to 10. Tulla Fonso, show, 4 to 5.

7652 SECOND RACE—1 1-16 Miles. 4-year-olds and upward. Selling. Purse $400; value to winner $300; $75 to second; $25 to third.

Winner—Ch. f, 4, by Fonso—Peg Woffington.
Post 8 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving hard. Madrilene had the foot of the party and just galloped all the way. She is in grand form. Dunois could never get near her. He was none too well handled, being on the extreme outside all the way. The ride made little or no difference in the result. Muskalonge, outrun early, finished fast and ran one of his good races. He has become a sulker. Yuba Dam ran an improved race over his last. He was prominent all the way and just stopped at the end. Rutter was scheduled to ride Dunois, but the judges received notice from St. Louis that the boy was suspended. The notice came after the horses had gone to the post. Dunois was called back, Rutter taken off and Caywood substituted.
Scratched—Winslow, 105; Pepper, 108; Sidonian, 106.

Madrilene, place, 7 to 10. Muskalonge, show, 3 to 5.

Winner—B. c, by Deceiver—Sea View.
Post 7 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second, third and fourth driving to the limit. Sea Lion was nicely handled. Burns kept him in behind the others to the stretch. Then he came with a rush. This colt likes to run from behind and can go a route. Miss Marks ran an honest race. She looked to be winning when Frank Bell stopped at the head of the stretch, but could not stall off Sea Lion's rush. Queen of Song was all tangled up at the start. She had a lot of trouble in the race, but finished strong and true. Frank Bell lacks courage. He was much used at the post and tired badly when the pinch came. Hardy Pardee can be tabbed from now on. He had a lot of speed and ran a good race.
Sea Lion, place, even.

7654 FOURTH RACE—1 1-4 Miles. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling. Purse $400; value to winner $300; $75 to second; $25 to third.

Time, 25 1/2, 37 1/2, 51 1/2, 1:04 1/2, 1:17, 1:43 1/2, 2:08.

Winner—Br. c, 4, by Jim Gore—Bagpipes.
Off at first break to a good start. Won hand ridden but with something left; second and third driving hard. Moncreith was the best as the race was run. The pace was slow and he out-sprinted the others through the stretch. Forte—slow to begin and hustled all the way—was running fast at the end. He is a hard horse to ride and needs the strongest kind of handling. Morte Fonso runs best under Thorpe. He seemed to be winning on the far turn, when Caywood made his move, but tired when straightened away for home. Swordsman—under a stout pull nearly all the way—collapsed when the pinch came. Friar John skinned the rails on the far turn and his chances seemed good on the stretch turn. He could not stay tough and tired badly in the closing drive.
Scratched—Sir Hobart, 92; Paul Kauvar, 112.

Overweights—Del Paso II, 2 pounds.

Winner—B. f, by Himyar—Madame Julie.
Post 7 minutes. Start good. Won driving and staggering; second and third were under full sail. Ferroll was lucky and well handled. Burns got the filly off flying and took the short route. She was tiring fast, though, at the finish and it was only good jockeyship that held her together. Heigh Ho perhaps should have won. She suffered from bad handling and took the long route. This filly dislikes weight. Lizzie Cavalier had bad luck. She was bumped and interfered with at the start. Hardly had speed but tired. From a poor beginning Revenge Dare ran a creditable race. Hardly will win a race soon under light weight.
Ferroll, place, 6 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Heigh Ho, place, 3 to 5. Lizzie Cavalier, show, 1 to 2.

7656 SIXTH RACE—1 1-16 Miles. 3-year-olds. Selling. Purse $400; value to winner $300; $75 to second; $25 to third.

Time, 12, 24, 49, 1:02, 1:14 1/2, 1:41 1/2, 1:48 1/2.

Winner—Ch. f, by Chance—Locust Bloom.

Off at first break to a good start. The first four were driving to the limit. Locust Blossom's win was a great surprise. She got away well and McNickle stole a march on the other boys. He opened up a big gap early that could not be overcome. The filly was dying fast at the end. Daisy F was far the best and with anything like a good ride could not have lost. Woods got off poorly but took a chance though to get through on the first turn. He then pulled up and went around and was galloping over his field at the finish. Nathanson evidently prefers a fast track. His race was a great improvement over the last. George Krats was right there. Conley's ride on him was a horror. He was in and out and all over the track. Uarda is not much these days. She was heavily played but ran disappointingly. Wilson wants a muddy track.
Scratched—Elidad, 102; Found, 97.
Overweights—George Krats, 2 1/2 pounds.
Locust Blossom, place, 20 to 1; show, 6 to 1. Nathanson, place, 6 to 1, show, 3 to 1. Daisy F, show, 2 to 5.

Time, 2:44, 4:01, 1:04, 1:44.

Winner—Ch. h. 7, by Tom Nicholls—Mollie R.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. The first four were driving. Frost waited too long with Nicholas. Pope Leo was run off his feet chasing Jesse. The latter was gamier than usual. He likes this track, but was tiring at the end. Teucer ran the best race of the party and would have won in another ten yards.
Scratched—Earl Fonso, 88.
Overweights—Teucer, 4 pounds; Tally Ho, 1.

Time, 2:44, 4:01, 1:02, 1:15, 1:28.

Winner—Blk. g. 4, by Pontiac—Genevieve.
Post 4 minutes. Start poor. Won driving hard; second and third also driving. Rideau got off with a flying start and opened up a big gap in the first quarter. Was stopping fast the last furlong. Bromo was eased up at the end. Filibuster saved ground at the home turn. Was going strongest at the end.
Overweights—Kathie May, 2 pounds; Aunt Lida, 3; Miss Redwood, 4.
